

COOKIE POLICY

1. WHY DO WE NEED A POLICY?

1.1 General Terms

The terms of this Cookie Policy (the "Policy") apply to the Site.

The purpose of this Policy is (1) to inform the User of the list of Cookies used and automatically downloaded to the User's device; and (2) to notify the User of the purposes of installation and use of such Cookies, as well as the retention/installation period of such Cookies on the User's device; and (3) to inform the User of the methods of disabling cookies and/or their removal from the device.

Each User has the right to read the text of this Policy at the following link: https://centicore.ru/policy\_cookie.

The information in this document is an integral part of the Website Privacy Policy, which User can read at the following link: <https://centicore.ru/privacy>.

If the User has any questions about this Policy and/or the operation of the Cookies, the User may address their question to the Right Holder in the following manner:

The User may obtain any clarification on questions of interest regarding the processing of his or her personal data by contacting hello@centicore.ru.

If the User does not agree with and/or does not understand some of the terms of this Policy, he/she must immediately stop using the Website.

1.2 Definition of terms

"Cookies" means predominantly small pieces of data stored on a User's computer, tablet, cell phone or other device that allow certain information to be recorded whenever the User visits the Site, interacts with services, applications, tools, and sends and receives messages, for the purpose of identifying the User regardless of the device used.

"User" means the legal or natural person who uses and/or accesses the Site.

"Copyright Holder" means the following person in whose name the Site is registered:

OSK-YUG LLC, 123610, Moscow, Krasnopresnenskaya naberezhnaya, 12, podium 6, office 1348B

+7 (499) 650-83-73

"Site" means an information unit in the Internet, a resource of web pages (documents), which are united by a common theme and linked to each other with the help of links. The Website is registered to the Right Holder and is necessarily linked to a specific domain, which is its address. This Policy is developed for the following website: <https://centicore.ru>.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES USED FOR?

2.1 Purposes of use

The Rights Holder uses Cookies to achieve the following purposes:

- (1) to store information about the User for the duration of their use of the Site.
- (2) to identify the User (recognizing the browser and/or device each time the User logs in to the Site, saving the screen and browser settings and/or saving the Users login and password to log in to the Site).
- (3) for third parties to advertise on the Site and/or track Users' information for the purpose of providing targeted advertising or Site usage analytics.
- (4) for analyzing Website traffic by Users, identifying the effectiveness of advertising content and its popularity among Users.
- (5) for the operation of certain sections/pages of the Site (where the use of Cookies is essential).
- (6) to improve the Site's usability and navigation.
- (7) to improve the interaction between the Site and Users.
- (8) to improve the quality of service and ensure maximum convenience and comfort for Users when using the Site.

(2.2) Types of Information to Be Collected

The Rights Holder does not use Cookie Files to identify Users, but solely to determine how Users use the Site.

The Right holder can collect the following information about the Users via Cookie Files:

- (1) the IP address, browser type, and device from which Users access the Site; and
- (2) operating system and ISP information; and

- (3) Country information from which you are accessing the Site; and
- (4) date and time of visiting the Site and possible number of clicks made by the User.

3. WHAT COOKIES ARE USED?

According to generally accepted classifications, there are currently the following types of cookies:

- (1) Technical cookies. They are essential for the smooth and reliable functioning of the Site. Disabling this type of Cookies may result in limiting the User's access to certain functionality of the Site.
- (2) Session cookies. They are temporary and retain information about the User's activity in the browser for one session (i.e. until such browser is closed by the User).
- (3) Permanent cookies. They are stored in the memory of the User's device for a certain period of time and are responsible for the User's personal preferences set in the browser (e.g. language settings of the browser and/or the font of the Site).
- (4) Statistical cookies. They are needed to keep track of the pages/sections of the Site visited by the User, as well as to identify possible errors in the operation of the Site. The information collected about Users by this type of Cookies is anonymous and necessary for the effective maintenance and updating of the Site, as well as for providing the User with targeting content.
- (5) Behavioral Cookies. They are needed to collect information about the User's search queries and preferences for marketing and/or other market research in order to subsequently provide personalized marketing and advertising content to the User.
- (6) Third parties and their cookies. They are needed for the following purposes: (a) collection by analytical platforms of information about User traffic on the Site, formation of User's portrait and analysis of the effectiveness of the Site and marketing strategy; and (b) provision by third parties (marketing platforms or agencies) of personalized advertising and/or marketing content to the User on the Site and/or on third parties' websites.

The Site in its operation uses the following cookies belonging to the Rights Holder:

"session" cookies are stored in your browser only for the duration of your session in the browser, i.e., until you leave the Website;

"persistent" cookies remain in your browser after your session ends (unless you delete them);

"information collectors" receive and accumulate information about your use of the website, such as what web pages you have visited and whether there are any error messages. These files do not collect personally identifiable information. The information collected is accumulated in such a way as to ensure its anonymity.

"Information collectors" are used to improve the operation of the website;

"Functional" cookies allow the website to remember all of your choices associated with it (e.g., text resizing, customization pages), or to activate services such as posting blog comments.

The site may use the following third-party cookies in operation:

Yandex Metrica. The period of validity is up to 10 years;

In addition, the Site may also use the following technologies to collect non-personally identifiable information and to track Users:

pixels or beacons may be used to analyze User behavior on the Site
